Job description

HSR Psychology is part of the Tx Group: a growing private therapy company, providing a variety of health and education therapy services in the North West of England.

HSR Psychology is an independently owned, not-for-profit social enterprise. HSR Psychology offers psychology services to individuals, schools and colleges, working with children and young people to maximise wellbeing and potential by providing immediate access to a broad range of psychology services. HSR believes all children and young people should have their needs met at home, school and in the community so they can be happy, safe and ready to cope with life's challenges.

HSR Psychology provides input to early years, schools and in post sixteen education settings and to parents from our clinic based in central Manchester. Our employees make a real difference by contributing to the development of an environment to ensure children's attainment, wellbeing, and progress is maximised.

We have exciting opportunities for Associate Clinical Psychologists to join the team, working with schools and individuals in the North West. We anticipate the roles will be predominantly school based and will involve providing assessments, consultations and interventions, as well as delivering training to individuals and groups to increase awareness and offer guidance. The roles will entail working collaboratively with our team of clinical psychologists, educational psychologists and assistant psychologists, as well as providing supervision input to the assistant psychologists and participating in peer supervision with the psychology team.

What does it take to be successful in this role?

To be successful in this role you would need to:

- Be committed to making a difference to the lives of children and young adults.
- Provide a consistently high standard of interventions for the children and schools you work with and achieve tangible results.
- Practice with a holistic, child centred approach.
- Have impeccable communication skills in order to provide clear support and training to relevant parties.
- Build a strong rapport with the children, families and professionals you work alongside.
- Work well both independently and as part of a multidisciplinary team.
- Be flexible in your approach and adapt to a variety of circumstances and requests, according to needs.
- Act as a champion for the HSR Psychology service.

The Ideal Candidate

The successful applicant must meet the following requirements:

- Qualified Clinical Psychologist (Doctorate in Clinical Psychology)
- HCPC Registered Practitioner Psychologist
- Eligible for BPS membership
- Passionate about working directly with children and families

Our ideal candidate will be a personable individual with a calm, caring and patient demeanor. They will be capable of quickly establishing a rapport with children and young people and will have a positive, motivating and encouraging attitude. They will have impeccable communication skills and will be at ease delivering interventions, training and advice to groups and individuals

The successful candidate will have an in depth knowledge of mental health and developmental issues, statutory guidelines and an up-to-date knowledge of the field and an innovative and flexible approach. They will be conscientious, focused and confident working both independently and within a team. They will be highly organised, comfortable working to deadlines and able to prioritise their workload appropriately.

Due to the travel requirements of the role, this position would be most appropriate for an individual with a driving licence and access to a car.

We provide each child and young person with the skills they need to maximise their potential.
