

happy. safe. ready.

We are looking for an...

Employed Educational Psychologist

we believe children
and young adults
should be happy,

they should be safe...

and we think they should be ready.

Job description

HSR Psychology is part of the Tx Group: a growing private therapy company, providing a variety of health and education therapy services in the North West of England.

HSR Psychology is an independently owned and controlled not-for-profit social enterprise committed to creating a positive social impact in the North West of England. HSR provides educational and clinical psychology services to individuals and education settings. We work with children and young people between the ages of 0-25 with various special educational needs and/or disabilities (SEND), with the aim to maximise wellbeing and potential by providing immediate access to a broad range of psychology services. HSR believes all children and young people should have their needs met at home, school and in the community so they can be happy, safe and ready to cope with life's challenges.

We have exciting opportunities for educational psychologists to join our team as an employed member of staff, working with schools and individuals in the North West of England.

What does it take to be successful in this role?

To be successful in this role you would need to:

- Be motivated by making a difference to the lives of children and young people
- Provide a consistently high standard of interventions for the children and schools you work with and achieve tangible results
- Practice with a holistic, evidence based approach
- Have impeccable communication skills in order to provide clear support and training to relevant parties
- Build a strong rapport with the children, families and professionals you work alongside
- Work well both independently and as part of a multidisciplinary team
- Be flexible in your approach and adapt to a variety of circumstances and requests, according to needs
- Act as a champion for the HSR Psychology service

Job description

The Ideal Candidate

The successful applicant must meet the following requirements:

- Qualified educational psychologist
- HCPC Registered
- Eligible for AEP/BPS membership
- Experience working directly with children, young people and families in education settings
- Experience with education, health and care plans

Our ideal candidate will be a personable individual with a calm, caring and patient demeanour. They will be highly motivated, capable of building strong relationships quickly and of bringing out the best in the children and young adults they work with. They will have a good knowledge of mental health, wellbeing issues and of appropriate interventions.

The successful candidate will have impeccable communication skills in order to facilitate the delivery of the highest quality service to children and young people. They will be conscientious, highly organised and confident working both independently and within a team. They will also be at ease with delivering training and advice to groups and individuals and have a flexible and innovative approach.

Due to the travel requirements of the role, this position would be most appropriate for an individual with a driving licence and access to a car.

We provide each child and young person with the skills they need to maximise their potential.

Job summary

TITLE:	Educational Psychologist
SALARY	£39,000 - £55,000
LOCATION	Manchester
HOURS	Flexible
ACCOUNTABLE TO	Senior Management

HSR Psychology is part of the Tx Group: a growing private therapy company, providing a variety of health and education therapy services in the North West of England.

HSR Psychology is an independently owned and controlled not-for-profit social enterprise committed to creating a positive social impact in the North West of England. HSR provides educational and clinical psychology services to individuals and education settings. We work with children and young people between the ages of 0-25 with various special educational needs and/or disabilities (SEND), with the aim to maximise wellbeing and potential by providing immediate access to a broad range of psychology services. HSR believes all children and young people should have their needs met at home, school and in the community so they can be happy, safe and ready to cope with life's challenges.

The educational psychologist will join our team and work within education, home and community settings on an employed basis in the Greater Manchester area.

Job summary

Job summary

Main Responsibilities:

- Main Professional Responsibilities:
- To maximise the wellbeing of children and young people by providing an effective service to parents, carers and education settings
- To identify needs through effective screening and assessments
- Increasing awareness of the positive role educational psychology can have on children and young people
- To provide consultations
- To produce reports
- Attend meetings
- To provide support and training to individuals and groups
- To participate in CPD
- To participate in supervision line management and professional
- To help give children, young adults and their families the knowledge they need to lead happy, healthy and fulfilled lives
- To work together and help education providers develop environments to ensure their students' attainment, wellbeing, and progress is maximised
- To provide a flexible service that adapts to the needs of the child, young person, or education setting
- To measure the results of interventions and to adapt or develop interventions accordingly
- To promote a culture of inclusion at all times

Job summary

Responsibilities

General Responsibilities:

- To manage all tasks effectively and efficiently
- Set high standards of self and others, assume responsibility and accountability for completion of tasks on behalf of the team
- Monitor and update diary and bookings system where necessary
- Update clinical notes following each appointment
- Actively participate in selected quality management activities
- Assist with the coordination of everyday services
- To demonstrate effective time management and organisational skills during management of own workload and to be able to adapt to a changing work pattern

Team Member Responsibilities:

- Run an efficient and high quality service
- Collaborate to deliver an excellent customer journey and experience
- Participate as part of a happy and motivated dynamic team
- Provide the best experience in all environments

Service Development Responsibilities:

- To develop the service
- To meet with education settings which have expressed an interest in our services
- To advise on new enquiries
- To develop training and CPD events
- To demonstrate evidence of the cost effectiveness of our services

This job description is not meant to be exhaustive and reflects only the current and anticipated responsibilities of the post. The successful applicant will be expected to work flexibly in order to meet the overall needs of the position.

How to apply

To apply, please send your CV and any covering information to careers@hsrpsychology.co.uk

We provide immediate access to broad range of child psychology services to early years, schools, post-16 education providers, parents and carers.

happy. safe. ready.

Apply today!

To apply please send your CV and any covering information to:
careers@hsrpsychology.co.uk

